

Postcards from a Great Canadian Photographer

This is the eagerly anticipated second edition to Roy Sennett's groundbreaking handbook on J. W. Bald's terrific postcards. Authored by Roy's son Edward, this edition contains:

- A much expanded section on J. W. Bald's early years as an apprentice photographer in Barrie, Ontario, including photos of his first studio in Penetanguishene and Midland,
- A section on J. W. Bald's tools-of-the-trade including his Carbine postcard camera and Graber postcard printing machine,
- Expanded maps of the nooks and crannies along the Georgian Bay coastline and Severn River where J. W. Bald took the majority of his photographs,
- And most importantly, comprehensive listings and over 900 images of some of the most sought after postcards in Canada.

BOOK DETAILS → 8.5 by 11 inches, laminated soft cover, spiral bound, 244 pages with a lavishly illustrated biography of J. W. Bald, 1200+ postcard listings, 900+ illustrations, and everything in full colour!
